Information for Flex Route 65 (shaded area on map)

Clovis Transit's Flex Route 65 provides call-in service on weekdays from 7:00 am – 5:00 pm. Passengers who live in this area can call for service by following these procedures up to 24 hours in advance of their trip.

- At least one-hour prior to desired pick-up time, call (559) 324-2770 and tell transit staff the following information:
 - The time you will be at the desired bus stop
 - The number of people traveling with you including children and infants
 - Your drop off location. You can be dropped at the following locations only:
 - Any existing bus stop within the Flex Route area
 - Stageline or FAX transfer locations at Shaw and Cole or 5th & Sunnyside
- A vehicle will arrive within 30 minutes of your scheduled pick-up time and will travel the shortest route to your desired drop-off location. You can schedule your return trip at this time.
- For return trips, travel back to your drop-off point and contact transit dispatch by cell phone or inform the Stageline bus driver of your need to use the Flex Route 65.
